

EXTERMINATION

LOGLINE:

Extermination is a gripping one-hour television series that unfolds during Flight 1021 from Tokyo to Boston. As the 87 passengers settle in for what should be an uneventful journey, a global pandemic begins to spread, turning people into bloodthirsty zombies and changing courses to a destitute Alaska.

CNS: THE VIRUS

The virus attacks the human Central Nervous System (CNS), creating a rabid-like response in humans and animals. CNS triggers the reactions of Epilepsy, Stroke, and Alzheimer's all at once.

SYNOPSIS:

Terminated explores the dynamics of a desperate group of people forced into a life-or-death situation. As they navigate the challenges of their new world, they must find a way to work together, unravel the mystery of the pandemic, and discover if there's any hope for humanity's survival.
